CRCC Asia

As the leading provider of international internships, CRCC Asia works with over 600 companies in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen, Tokyo, Osaka, Ho Chi Minh City, Manchester, and Seoul to provide students and graduates the opportunity to further their personal and professional development in a dynamic, international setting. All of our Programs allow participants to gain insight into global business culture, meet industry leaders and build business networks. All CRCC Asia programs are rooted in our 5 key learning objectives: Employability, Cultural Agility, Country Specific Knowledge, Sector Specific Knowledge, and Global Connections.

KAHAL

KAHAL facilitates transformational Jewish experiences for study abroad students. A robust resource and structured support network, KAHAL works with local communities in more than 40 countries and 70 cities around the world, providing Jewish study abroad students the resources, tools, and personal connections they need to meaningfully engage with local Jewish communities and deepen their connection to the global Jewish people.
Students on any CRCC Asia internship program have access to the following KAHAL resources:

SPECIALIZED GUIDES about Jewish life and opportunities in host cities

PRE-DEPARTURE RESOURCES, including personal consultations about host cities and connections to other students

SPONSORED PROGRAMS for Jewish and non-Jewish students in partnership with the local Jewish communities, such as meeting business leaders and cultural tours

CONNECTIONS to other study abroad students, local students, and young professionals in host city

GRANT MONEY to organize and attend Jewish events abroad

Access to SHABBAT DINNERS & HOLIDAY CELEBRATIONS with local families and organizations

Opportunities to TRAVEL AND CONNECT with local Jewish communities across Asia and the world

INTERESTED? Visit www.KahalAbroad.org or www.crccasia.com, or email info@KahalAbroad.org for more information.
CHABAD OF BEIJING

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. People visit from all over the world and have lively Shabbat Dinners. They also have Saturday morning and Holiday services, with free meals for students. It’s an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.

GANEINU INTERNATIONAL

Ganeinu is the first and only Jewish Day School in northern China, and there are opportunities to get involved and volunteer with the school.

ISRAEL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

IsCham was launched during the Olympic Games in August 2008, by Israeli President, Shimon Peres. IsCham is a non-profit, non-governmental organization and was established to represent and assist the Sino-Israeli business community in developing commercial relations between China, Israel, and the Jewish world. The Israeli Chamber of Commerce has monthly speaker events open for students. CRCC Asia has partnered with IsCham, as a Host Company, providing internships for participants. in Beijing. This is the only Host Company that CRCC works with that is centered around Jewish residents, with a Jewish supervisor in Innoway. IsCham hosts local events that are centered around Jewish residents and visitors including the 2018 Israeli Beauty Event.

KEHILLAT BEIJING

A Progressive (Reform) community that holds weekly Friday night and Shabbat day services. The community also holds services and communal meals for High Holidays, as well as frequent social, cultural, and tikkun olam events and activities. The community is made up of lots of American expats and loves welcoming international students. This reform Jewish community meets every Friday in the Capital Mansion. For more information, contact KAHAL at info@KahalAbroad.com.

MOISHE HOUSE BEIJING

A group of young adults that live together in an apartment and put on several events a month (Jewish and non-Jewish events for local young Jews). Events include falafel nights, yoga, Shabbat dinners, study hours, paintball, and more. The residents in the Beijing house are mostly American, and they attract students and young professionals from all over the world. Contact KAHAL for more information.

ZYCL TECHNOLOGY CO., LTD

Zycl Technology aims to build a new bridge of economic cooperation – from the Great Wall to the Western Wall. They strengthen economic and cultural cooperation and exchanges between China and Israel. Israel-based projects get matched up with with Chinese entrepreneurs, so Israeli science and technology projects can hatch, land and launch in China, integrating China’s market advantage with Israel’s advantages in science and technology.
CHABAD OF PUDONG

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. They hold Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students. It’s an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well. For more information, contact KAHAL at info@KahalAbroad.org.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.

JEWISH TOURS OF SHANGHAI

Shanghai has long been the home of a thriving Jewish community and has a fascinating history that is not to be missed. Join world renowned tour guides for Jewish walking tours of Shanghai and learn about this unique Jewish story. For more information, contact KAHAL or visit their website.

KEHILAT SHANGHAI

A Progressive (Reform) community that holds weekly Friday night and Shabbat day services. The community also holds services and communal meals for High Holidays, as well as frequent social, cultural, and tikkun olam events and activities. The community is made up of lots of American expats and loves welcoming international students.
MOISHE HOUSE SHANGHAI

A group of young adults that live together in an apartment and put on several events a month (Jewish and non-Jewish events for local young Jews). Events include falafel nights, yoga, Shabbat dinners, study hours, paintball, and more. The residents in the Shanghai house are mostly American, and they attract students and young professionals from all over the world.

OHEL RACHEL SHANGHAI

The Ohel Rachel Synagogue, reopened after 60 years, provides Shanghai’s Jewish community with a place to pray and strengthens relations between China and the Jewish residents and travelers. Ohel Rachel was one of old Shanghai’s six synagogues, only one of two still standing today, the other being Ohel Moishe in Hongkou which has been turned into a museum dedicated to the history of Jews in Shanghai. Contact KAHAL for more information.

SHANGHAI JEWISH REFUGEES MUSEUM

A museum commemorating the Jewish refugees who lived in Shanghai during World War II after fleeing Europe to escape the Holocaust. The museum features documents, photographs, films, and personal items documenting the lives of some of the more than 20,000 Jewish residents of the Shanghai Ghetto during the Japanese occupation of Shanghai.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS NETWORK

Shanghai has a hub of Jewish young professionals who have come to China for business opportunities. The group gathers every few weeks to learn from seasoned professionals about their careers.
Shenzhen’s Jewish community is limited to the Chabad there, but given its close proximity to Hong Kong, students interning in Shenzhen may wish to take advantage of the wide array of opportunities in Hong Kong’s large Jewish community.

CHABAD OF HONG KONG

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds. They hold daily, as well as Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students nearly every week—though they do charge for larger, more elaborate meals and social events. Chabad of Hong Kong has three locations around the city in Mid-Levels, Kowloon, and Lantau Island.

CHABAD OF SHENZHEN

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds. They hold daily, as well as Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students nearly every week—though they do charge for larger, more elaborate meals and social events. There is also Chabad around Hong Kong, with three locations around the city in Mid-Levels, Kowloon, and Lantau Island.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.
HOME HOSPITALITY

There are many families that love hosting study abroad students in their home for Shabbat and Holiday meals. Contact KAHAL staff to be set up with a local family.

HONG KONG HOLOCAUST & TOLERANCE CENTER

One of Hong Kong’s only official advocacy and social action organizations, the HKHTC works to bring awareness of the Holocaust and other human rights issues to Hong Kong. Students interested in advocacy and human rights can intern or volunteer with the center, which is always looking for additional help.

HONG KONG JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

An annual event which draws thousands of Jewish and non-Jewish participants from across the city, the HKJFF is one of the most popular Jewish film festivals in the world. Taking place in the fall, students can take part in the celebrations by attending films, participating in discussions, or volunteering with the festival organizers.

HONG KONG JEWISH WOMEN’S ASSOCIATION

A thriving group of female professionals in Hong Kong, the JWA offers mentorship, networking, and community building opportunities for students throughout the year. Additionally, the JWA is extremely involved in service and philanthropy, sponsoring the annual JWA Bazaar, which raises tens of thousands of dollars each year for charity.
JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER OF HONG KONG

At the heart of Hong Kong’s Jewish community is its sprawling, 8-story JCC. The JCC plays host to dozens of events each week, including cultural, social, and religious opportunities. Additionally, the JCC has recently begun offering study abroad students heavily discounted membership rates, giving students access to the kosher market, a gym, and other amenities for a low, fixed price per semester.

OHEL LEAH SYNAGOGUE

An Orthodox community which holds daily, as well as Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services. An open and welcoming expat community, Ohel Leah is located in Mid Levels adjacent to the JCC. Ohel Leah hosts Friday night dinners at least once a month for young professionals, which always feature an interesting speaker and gourmet food and are a favorite among KAHAL students. Each week, Ohel Leah hosts a free Shabbat kiddush/lunch, which is a great place to meet hundreds of local community members and young professionals. This warm, welcoming community also hosts many social, cultural, and tikkun olam events and activities and welcomes study abroad students’ participation.

UJC-HONG KONG

A Progressive (Reform) community that holds weekly Friday night and Shabbat day services. The community also holds services and communal meals for High Holidays, as well as frequent social, cultural, and tikkun olam events and activities. The Rabbis are both American expats and love welcoming international students! UJC is located in Mid-Levels on Hong Kong Island.
KOSHER IN HONG KONG

KOSHER MARKET IN JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER
(One Robinson Place, 70 Robinson Rd, Mid-level, Hong Kong) • Only open to members of the JCC (and before High Holidays), the JCC’s Kosher market is a one-stop-shop for Kosher meats, cheeses, wines, and more.

MUL HAYAM
(Wing On Plaza, 62 Mody Rd, Tsim Sha Tsui East, Hong Kong) • A Kosher, meat restaurant located in Kowloon Bay. A fusion of Israeli and Chinese cuisine, this is a favorite among locals and tourists alike.

THE COFFEE SHOP
(One Robinson Place, 70 Robinson Rd, Mid-level, Hong Kong) • A Kosher, meat restaurant in the Jewish Community Center building.

WATERSIDE DAIRY RESTAURANT
(One Robinson Place, 70 Robinson Rd, Mid-level, Hong Kong) • A Kosher, dairy restaurant in the Jewish Community Center building.
CHABAD OF TOKYO

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. They hold Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students. It’s an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.

JCC JAPAN

A warm and vibrant egalitarian congregation. They welcome Jews of all backgrounds and hold weekly Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services as well as frequent community meals.

JEWISH-INSPIRED FOOD IN TOKYO

CHANA’S PLACE – Located in Chabad of Tokyo, Chana’s Place opened in 2015 and is currently the only certified Kosher restaurant in Japan. The restaurant is located at Beit Chabad in the Takanawa neighborhood in central Tokyo. From afar, the building may look like a regular house.

KOSHER DELICA – Delivery-only service; order at least 1 day in advance if you are within Tokyo and 3 days in advance if you are located outside of Tokyo.

SHAMAIM – Shamaim is an Israeli restaurant at Ekoda station. Although it isn’t certified Kosher, it offers mouth-watering all-you-can-eat Israeli dishes. The staff is super friendly and welcoming, and for only ¥2,400 (taxes included), you get a variety of Israeli dishes. We highly recommend this place!

TA-IM – Located in Ebisu, Ta-im offers a best-of-both-world dining experience: the restaurant has the welcoming atmosphere of a tiny Japanese restaurant with the flare of Israel. This food is both delicious and authentic, being that it was made by an Israeli chef. In addition to dining (which includes the ¥1,360 falafel lunch) options, Ta-im offers a wide variety of great Israeli wine.

OTHER SUGGESTIONS – David’s Deli, Kosher Certified Brewery of Sake, Wise Sons Deli
CHABAD OF HO CHI MINH

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. They hold Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students. It’s an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.

HO CHI MINH PROGRESSIVE JEWISH COMMUNITY

There is a small Progressive (Reform) community that holds occasional Friday night, Shabbat day and Holiday services and meals. The community is quite international and loves visiting students!
Manchester has a large, active Jewish community that provides interns with a variety of opportunities for involvement. In addition to the opportunities featured below, students can take advantage of:

- Jewish Cultural Centre
- Jewish Representative Council of Greater Manchester
- Manchester Jewish Community Centre
- Manchester Jewish Museum
- Various Synagogues in the Manchester Area

CHAPLAINCY

An Orthodox organization that works with university students across the UK. The Chaplaincy rabbi works with University of Manchester and can help students in a variety of ways, such as finding host families for Shabbat, working with the university when Jewish Holidays conflict with exams, and providing general guidance and support for all Jewish students.

HOME HOSPITALITY

There are many families that love hosting study abroad students in their home for Shabbat and Holiday meals. Contact KAHAL staff to be set up with a local family.

J-SOC

University of Manchester has a J-Soc (Jewish Society on Campus) that organizes weekly lunch and learns, lectures, volunteer programs, parties and more. All of the J-Socs across the UK are under the Union of Jewish Students (UJS) umbrella organization that provides opportunities for student activists to come together on the national level.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.
CHABAD OF SEOUL

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. They hold Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students. It's an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.

SEOUL PROGRESSIVE JEWISH COMMUNITY

There is a small Progressive (Reform) community that holds occasional Friday night, Shabbat day and Holiday services and meals. The community is quite international and loves visiting students!
CHABAD OF OSAKA

An Orthodox organization that welcomes Jews of all backgrounds and caters specifically to students and travelers. They hold Friday night, Saturday morning and Holiday services, and have free meals for students. It’s an open and welcoming environment, and they organize Jewish learning opportunities as well.

DIY EXPERIENCE

KAHAL micro-grants are available to any Jewish student studying abroad to help facilitate your Jewish experience. Grants can be used to host your own Shabbat or Holiday meal, organize an event, attend a seminar or conference, or in some cases, as travel subsidies. Grants will be made in USD up to $250. Visit www.KahalAbroad.org/grantapp to apply, or contact info@KahalAbroad.org with any questions or inquiries about potential programs.